
Olcott Beach cleanup to be held Saturday

HELP: Volunteers needed, can show up at 10 a.m.

STAFF REPORTS

A group of volunteers will be cleaning up trash

at Fisherman's Park and Olcott Beach Saturday morning.

The cleanup effort will run from 10 a.m. to noon.

Volunteers include a Cub Scout group and several other community groups.

The public is invited to join in the effort, said Ryan Perrello, remedial action plan coordinator for the Niagara County Soil and Water Conservation District.

"Anybody who wanted to show up can," he said. "We could definitely use some volunteers."

All of the trash will be documented for the American Littoral Society, Perrello said. Trash typically found in the area includes plastic cups, fishing line and "anything unnatural," he said.

The number of diseased and dead animals in the area will also be tracked, Perrello said.

Volunteers can either "just show up," or contact Perrello by phone at 434-4949, ext. 114, or by email at Ryan.Perrello@ny.nacdnet.net.
